

ICS 201 - Introduction to Computing II

Project

Design and implement a speed click game. In this game, Random objects will appear on your board and move at random speeds. As a player, click as many objects as you can. Each object will have a value. Display the score while playing the game. When the game is over, display the score board.